

about with you!

You will be seeing her tomorrow I expect. I was sorry to hear that Mr Critchison has died. You will miss him at Fanningtown. He was staying here, in the summer, and was introduced to Auntie Nellie. He told her he knew you. Did I tell you that Dr. Branson died last week? It was on Saturday, I think. I did not know he was ill. He can't have been ill long, for he was out on the Tuesday.

My dear Mollie,

What are you doing to have a cold again? I hope it is better. Have you had a temperature? And has your throat been bad?

Father & I have had wretched colds & when we got here Uncle Albert had one, too, so they seem quite common.

Harrogate looks very nice just now, after the rain. Auntie has got some marvellous Chrysanthemums - I mean Michaelmas daisies: I pike getting away - & he caught several perch, etc; so he is improving. isn't he?

It seems a long time since I saw Judith as she was in Liverpool for a week before we came here. but I think she is flourishing.

I wish I was coming to see you! But, bless me, you will be coming home for the holidays the next thing we know.

I was very extravagant the other day. I bought a lovely Solagua outfit. It was £1-1-0, but it seems to have dozens of pens & transfers & everything necessary. Will you have it for X mas or shall I give it to her?

My best love to Mr. Chicken.

don't know what made me put Chrysanthemums! The gold fish have grown considerably & come to side of the pond to be fed when anyone goes to look at them.

Mr Brown says it is no use making harness for Rupert; without a proper cart; & it seems as though it will be very expensive so I think we must leave it. It isn't as tho' you were at home much to use it; & in any case you are too big to ride in a toy cart; aren't you? You had better have a collar & lead - or a little shoulder harness, & take him
